TUESDAY NOON, APRIL 24

GRAND BALLROOM

Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel

$3.60 Per Plate

Presiding — Mr. Robert T. Ross, President, Michigan Safety Conference.

Invocation — Dr. Hartman A. Lichtwardt, Medical Director, Woman's Hospital, Detroit.

Welcoming of Delegates to Detroit — Commissioner Edward S. Piggins, Detroit Police Department.

Speaker — Miss Marion E. Martin, Commissioner, Department of Labor and Industry, State of Maine.

Subject — "As A Man Soweth . . ."

Miss Martin is a recognized figure in the field of accident prevention. She was elected in 1950 to the Board of Directors of the National Safety Council, a position she still holds and is also Vice-President for Women's Activities of the Council.

As Commissioner of the Maine Department of Labor and Industry, Miss Martin is a member of the State Industrial Accident Board; advisory member of the Apprenticeship Council and is chairman of the Board of Boiler Rules; Board of Elevator Rules and Board of Construction Safety Rules and Regulations. She is also chairman of the Maine Safety Conference. Her other activities are legion. Suffice to say, Miss Martin has a safety message which no one interested in the field of accident prevention should miss.
