The Michigan Safety Conference is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization dedicated to promoting the improvement of workplace safety and health practices in the State of Michigan. It provides participants with quality safety and health education through an annual conference in April that attracts over 1,900 attendees and over 200+ exhibitors. The conference has existed for 94 years, and features 120 classes in two days.

The Michigan Safety Conference is organized into 14 training divisions, and one section, representing many occupations. Each Group meets and plans educational programs appropriate to their focus area for the year's upcoming conference. Volunteers identify speakers and topics. The conference promotional brochure is published in February of each year.
